Yes Quilts

You're Each Special

Quilts that say Yes
to pregnant women in need

Acceptance

Comfort

Love

When a woman finds herself pregnant, unexpectedly, without support, she may feel lost, frightened, and confused, with a myriad of emotions and questions. She also may be at a crossroads.

She is in need of acceptance, comfort and love, such that a hug can really help.

YES Quilts gives her a special type of hug, a quilt made especially for her, letting her know someone cares.

Our Purpose

Our purpose is to enfold the woman who has an unplanned pregnancy into a caring, loving, and comforting acceptance. Through the making and gifting of a quilt, quilters, care providers, and other community members come together to provide this unique support to say YES, You're Each Special.

Yes! Someone cares about you!

Yes! You are loved just as you are!

Yes! Here is a hug just for you!

How this Works

Individuals, members of quilt guilds and church groups volunteer to make YES Quilts. Quite often, quilters share their talents by making handmade gifts for those in need.

Once completed, YES Quilts are collected and delivered to participating organizations such as clinics, medical professionals, community and church outreach programs, and others who serve women in unplanned pregnancies.

These organizations gift YES Quilts to these women based on the criteria of showing acceptance, providing comfort and most importantly, love of her as she is. And the experience of the organization in working with their clients, as each person and situation is unique.

Are you a provider that wants to gift these quilts to your clients?
